The banner features the logos of DPS (Department of Professional Studies) and CHRIST (Christ the King College of Arts, Science and Commerce) at the top. The central text reads: "Workshop based on skill development for faculty members: Online teaching-learning". Below the text is an illustration of a balance scale with a laptop on the left pan and books on the right pan. At the bottom, it specifies: "Mode: CISCO WEBEX", "Date: 31/07/2020", and "Time: 9:00 A.M. Onwards".

During the Covid Crisis of 2020, as Christites we are called to serve, and our service matters most when it appears difficult. The call to teach our students online emerges from a deep concern for the continuity of learning and in the development of the students in our care during the COVID-19 crisis. In order to support the goal of our university to ensure the continuity in teaching, learning and evaluation, a workshop based FDP on Online teaching and Learning was conducted on 31 July 2020 (Friday) from 2.00 PM to 4.00PM in a virtual platform. As professors, we have gained much experience and qualification to teach in higher education. Now, we are called to translate the same to the current need in the community. This Faculty Development Programme (FDP) executed in the form of a workshop was a reflection of the Christite graduate attributes of Academic and Professional Excellence.
